Friends of the Millville Library

Who are the Friends of the Library?

The Friends of the Millville Library is a non-profit organization designed to stimulate community interest in library services and to support the library in providing these services.

What do the Friends Do?

- They help acquire important materials and equipment that contribute to the excellence of library services.
- They provide the Library with a regular volunteer group whose purpose is to fundraise, assist the staff and enrich library services.
- They work with professional and community partners to advocate for the library.
- They sponsor speakers and other library programs as well as host special events, including book sales.

How do you become a Friends member?

The Friends of the Millville Library welcome as members all those who are interested in helping the Millville Public Library & the surrounding community. Membership forms are available at the library, or by calling 856-825-7087. For your convenience, an application has been included as the center panel of this brochure.
